CONTINUATION OF WPA PROGRAM IS REPORTED LIKELY

Many Upland Projects Await Fate of WPA Future—Five More Approved

SMITH TELLS SITUATION

Upland City Hall and Chaffey Auditorium Probable if Work Continued

That the gigantic WPA program is likely to be continued after its present scheduled termination June 30, and that Upland and other parts of the Chaffey district will continue to share in the government-financed work were indicated in statements today.

Of the eight projects approved yesterday in the San Bernardino WPA office, five came from Upland. The new projects call for additional water conservation work, street resurfacing and curbing. Total cost of the five local projects is placed at $97,848.

"It is likely that an extension of the program beyond June 30 will be authorized in some form by Congress," is the word received from state WPA headquarters by Ralph W. Smith, district WPA supervisor. Certain rigid restrictions about the type of work and the wages paid must be observed, the aim being to encourage persons to obtain private work.

Concerning the new WPA projects given district approval, the city of Upland agrees to purchase $15,926 of materials to be used in the improvements. The projects call for installing rubble concrete storm drains, grading of streets, preparing 10 acres of spreading grounds, erecting check dams, landscaping grounds around the spreading area, constructing concrete curbs and gutters, installing culverts and grading and surfacing more than two miles of streets. R. V. Ward, local construction engineer, was named to supervise the work. Scene for most of the work would be in the citrus area near upper Mountain avenue.

Many other projects in this district await future appropriations of money by Congress. If the WPA is continued it is likely a new science building will be erected on the Chaffey campus. Lawn must be placed on the Euclid avenue parkway from the Santa Fe tracks to the city's southern limits.

Linked closely with federal appropriations is the PWA.

If the PWA is continued it is likely Upland will get a new city hall and the Chaffey campus will get a new $390,000 auditorium.

Distinction is noted between the WPA—Works Progress Administration—and the PWA—Public Works Administration. In the PWA setup work is done by a private contractor with the federal government paying a share of the total cost. In the WPA the work is done under the direction of a WPA official and almost all of the laborers chosen from the list of persons of "relief status."

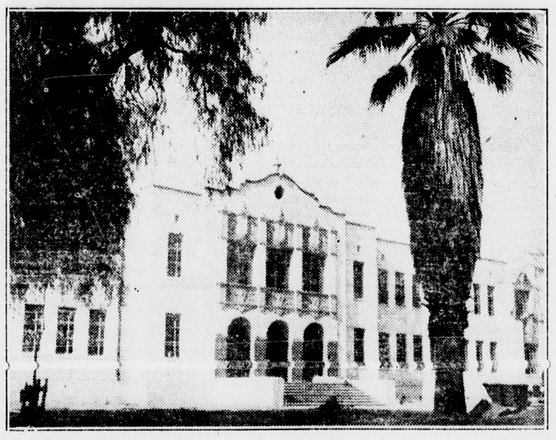
Girls League Makes Plans for Party to Entertain Mothers

Girls League of the Upland junior high school, Mrs. Edith Rush advisor, is making preparation for a mother and daughter party that gives promise of being a social event of more than ordinary interest.

The party will be held in the evening of St. Patrick's day, Wednesday, March 17, and a program of various interesting numbers is being arranged.

At the regular meeting of the League held Thursday, an interesting program was presented. The numbers included a Japanese dance by Esuko Nagasaki and Smauko Okamoto, a song by a group of fourth grade boys from the Fannie D. Noe school, presented by Miss Hudson, and several folk songs and dances by eight first grade girls, accompanied from the Fannie D. Noe school by Mrs. Ella Kouts. The girls were Barbara Sue and Betty Lou Hayden, Bessie Bell Cline, Ethel McIntosh, Geraldine Hawley, Virginia Owen, Jerry Lee Marquis and Margaret Huebner.

Liberal Arts Building To Be Occupied Soon



Shown above is the new liberal arts building on the Chaffey campus which will be occupied during the spring vacation. As it is occupied the science building, the most southerly structure on the campus, will be vacated. A WPA project calls for razing of the science building and construction of a new class building on its site. Following occupancy of the liberal arts building a dedicatory program will be held.

DOGS SCARCE IN QUARANTINE HERE

Few Canines Disposed of As Owners Keep Pets Tied On Property

Dogs running loose on Upland streets became very scarce after placing of a quarantine on Tuesday. Since then at least eight dogs have been disposed of by Upland police.

Canines without licenses and apparently without ownership are being confiscated by authorities in accordance with a quarantine order issued Tuesday by Dr. Robert I. Hodgin, city health officer. Rabies developed in several dogs last week and to avoid spreading of the disease the quarantine was ordered.

Individuals are cooperating with authorities, several calls about stray dogs being received by the police. The quarantine will be continued for a month. During that time all dogs must be kept tied up or on leash when off the owner's premises.

Catholic Mission To Be Dedicated By Bishop Sunday

Dedication of San Jose Catholic mission on North Campus avenue will occur Sunday, when Bishop Chas. F. Buddy of San Diego will be present to conduct the special services.

The new mission, included in the Lady of Guadalupe parish of which the Rev. J. R. Nunez is priest, was recently completed by the Mexican residents of the North Campus district.

Bishop Buddy, who was installed as bishop last month, will arrive Saturday and will be a dinner guest of the Rev. Albert F. Dontanville of St. George's church in Ontario.

At 8 o'clock Sunday morning Bishop Buddy will say mass at the Laly of Guadalupe church in Ontario for the men and boys of the parish.

Dedication of the San Jose mission will be held at 10:30 by Bishop Buddy and will be followed by solemn high mass.

The public is invited to attend the dedication services.

Policeman Arrested For Snow Balling

On duty, perhaps Lon Hines, Huntington Park policeman, sees that the law is enforced. Off duty in the snow in San Antonio canyon perhaps he forgets about the law.

At any rate he forfeited a $5 bail on a charge of throwing snow balls. The case was in Judge F. H. Jacobs' court. It is alleged he threw snow balls at a parked machine, which was occupied.

Bank Clearings in Increase Over 1936

Bank clearings in the Upland district continue to gain over corresponding periods in 1936. Clearings for last week were $565,337.24 as compared with $449,027.54 for the same week in 1936.

For the same period Ontario's bank clearings were $997,827.99 last week and $657,553.72 the same week in 1936.

BALL BLEACHERS ORDERED REMOVED

Last of Equipment Used in Night League Will Be Taken Down

Removal of the baseball bleachers and the electric light poles from the Upland junior high school campus was ordered by the local board of education at its meeting this week.

Used originally for fans at night ball games, the bleachers have been empty in recent years. Due to the fact the ball equipment has not been used, the school officials deemed it advisable to have it removed.

The board's decision will result in the removal of the last of the equipment used in the one-time flourishing night ball league here. For several years teams in the Upland district participated in a regular schedule with many fans attending the games. Some of the star players, however, were picked up by teams and leagues in other communities, leaving the league without suitable talent.

IDEA OF CONSUMER COOPERATIVES IS GIVEN IN ADDRESS

Homer Chaney Tells of Marketing Plan and of Its Difficulties

CUSTOMERS SHARE FUNDS

Chaffey Lecturer Deals With Subject Studied by Pres. Roosevelt

Consumer cooperatives have a place in America but they must earn that place by competing successfully, Homer Chaney, Pomona college graduate and lecturer, said last night in speaking in the Chaffey junior college auditorium.

"It has no place if it has to be subsidized," he continued, adding "we are more interested in the increase of income rather than the decrease in cost of living."

Mr. Chaney explained that the consumers cooperative is a voluntary association of individuals, democratically organized, for mutual benefit in which the idea of marketing is for service or use to the individuals rather than for profit. The first consumer cooperative was established in England in 1843. Since 1857 the cooperatives have been endeavoring to become established in America, he said.

"We don't know yet how to cooperate," Mr. Chaney said. "Failure has often been due to internal dissension and personal jealousies."

Among the fundamental principles of successful cooperatives in England and Sweden, Mr. Chaney listed the following: best of goods, no credit; democratically organized and controlled; one vote for each member regardless of stock owned; no restrictions of race or creed; profit distributed not according to stock owned but on basis of the amount of patronage given store.

President Franklin Roosevelt sent a commission to Europe last year to study the cooperatives.

D. R. FOSS LOSES IN SUIT FILED BY JOSEPH M'CLELLAN

Jury Gives Verdict Involving Removal of Sign From Property

D. R. Foss is to pay Joseph L. McClellan $1.88 as the result of a jury's verdict late yesterday afternoon in the damage case involving removal of a Mutual Orange Distributors sign. Actual cost of the sign was placed at $1.38 with 50 cents being added to cover cost of having it erected.

At the end of a day-long trial in Judge Fred H. Jacobs' justice court, a jury of 10 women and two men decided in favor of the plaintiff and award him damages in the sum of $1.88."

With the reading of this decision, Mr. McClellan warmly extended his hand to Mr. Foss and said: "I am glad to have met you but I regret it was under these circumstances." Apparently the two managers of local citrus associations had never before met.

While the case involved the names of the nation's two largest rival citrus marketing organizations and prominent residents, the trial gave no indication of any ill feeling between the concerns and the principals. During the hour of the jury's deliberation, the men in the case, their attorneys and friends joked and visited informally and good-naturedly in the crowded court room.

Mr. Foss, who is manager of the Old Baldy Citrus association, an affiliate of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, admitted removing the M. O. D. "Pure Gold" sign from the property at Euclid avenue and Seventeenth street. Mr. McClellan, manager of the Upland Mutual Groves, who had leased the residential property from Mrs. Sarah D. Temple, had erected the sign facing Euclid avenue near the driveway.

Fruit from the Temple citrus grove is marketed through the Old Baldy association and Mr. Foss claimed his concern suffered damages through the M. O. D. sign being adjacent to the citrus grove. Archie J. Neilson, manager of a local citrus association, and Fred E. Parker, citrus grower residing at 60 East Seventeenth street, appeared as witnesses for Mr. Foss. C. B. Mattox, Upland Mutual Groves field foreman, testified for Mr. McClellan.

Mr. McClellan filed damages of $202 against Mr. Foss about a year ago. Mr. Foss replied to the suit and filed a counter-claim for $299.99. Hearing of the case had been delayed for many months.

On the jury were Mrs. Perry O. Long, Mrs. Darwin Brest, Mrs. Charles V. Benson, Mrs. W. F. Dettweiler, Mrs. Nellie Jones, Mrs. Louis Kronmeyer, Mrs. Verna Mehl, Mrs. T. H. Settle, Mrs. Roy Creighton, Mrs. Henry Murkins, L. N. Kirk and DeForest Walton. Mrs. Brest was named foreman. The jury returned its verdict at about 5 p. m. Edward E. Gray was the attorney for Mr. Foss while Archie D. Mitchell was attorney for Mr. McClellan.

In addition to the $1.88, the defendant is obligated to pay the court costs.

"That they may be one, even as we are one."—John 17:22.

Girl Scouting Twenty-fifth Anniversary

Today is the twenty-fifth anniversary of Girl Scouting in America—and this week is being observed throughout the country in recognition of that splendid organization. Girl Scout organizations everywhere are honoring the memory of the founder, Mrs. Juliette Low, who as a girl in the South knew the privations resulting from the Civil war and who learned the necessity for self-reliance and also recognized that a certain amount of the proper kind of recreation should be the privilege of every child. It was such experiences as these that qualified her to found the splendid organization known as the Girl Scouts.

Numbered among the leadership in the Girl Scout work are thousands of paid leaders and many more thousands of volunteer workers who are qualified to direct the life of girls through the Girl Scout age. Through the proper kind of leadership the girls are given a program which includes the right kind of recreation, the program also being based upon the interests, enthusiasms and needs of the girls. It follows the educational principles underlying all progressive educational thinking and progressive educational experiments. As the Scout Blue Book states: "It is a program of mental, physical and character developing activities, with opportunities for camping and outdoor living. The varied and progressive group activities—nature study, home making, community service, creative and interpretive arts—have both recreational and educational value. They foster the acquisition of some skills and hobbies that may enrich the leisure time of girls throughout their life. The program is planned to help girls share intelligently the values of home life and to participate in the opportunities and responsibilities of citizenship in the world today."

Thus it is very evident that the Girl Scout organization is a worthy sister to the Boy Scouts—and with just as capable leadership among the women as the boys have in the men who direct the Scout program. In this community—which no doubt is characteristic of all others throughout the country in the Scout work—no better leadership could be found. Those directing the work have a sincere interest in the young and are appreciative of what the best leadership and example for the young mean to the future of the nation. It is not surprising that through such leaders directing such a worth while program that many Girl Scouts have become leaders in many activities throughout the nation.

The Girl Scout promise: "On my honor, I will try to do my duty to God and my country, to help other people at all times, to obey the Girl Scout rules." And according to the laws of Scouting a Girl Scout's honor is to be trusted; she is loyal; her duty is to be useful and to help others; a Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout. She is courteous, is a friend to animals, obeys orders, is cheerful, is thrifty and is clean in thought, word and deed.

What more could one ask of any organization? It should be the ambition of every girl to become a member and all parents should encourage their daughters to become Girl Scouts. It is a splendid method of making fine women out of them.

It's Garden Time Again

That backyard of yours, where what passes for a lawn has become a little scrubby with weeds and wild grass—why not make a garden of it this year?

You're missing one of the prime pleasures in life if you're not planning some sort of garden, even if you haven't a backyard—even if it's only a row of window-boxes.

Already the true gardeners, those persons of patience and vision who realize that the beauty of flowers and shrubs must be visualized months before it can be realized, are busily puttering.

They are selecting seed and preparing ground, and they are fortunate in being able to see in this bare ground and unexciting seed a profusion of natural loveliness that will be the envy of their more shortsighted neighbors in summer time.

California is justly famous for her gardens. And it's not just because the climate is better out here. It's because individuals, communities and whole cities are alive to California's tradition of helping nature to be beautiful.

But you who have not previously had quite the patience or vision to add your bit—why not have a try at planting a garden this year? Whosoever does will not regret it, for to him will come pride, beauty and a world of pelasure in the doing.

Well, the horse races are over again for Southern California—until about next Christmas. A horse race is a thrilling sight—and we cannot see that it is such a great crime to place a bet on a horse if a person can afford to spare the money: it might be considered the same as money that might be spent for some other form of amusement. But the great wrong in betting on horse races comes from the fact that thousands who cannot afford to lose any money—who need every cent they can scrape up to pay the butcher, grocer, clothier, etc.—figure out a system they think is unbeatable, gamble with every cent they can obtain—and lose. They are then "in the hole"—and the merchant goes without pay for things purchased by such parties. Perhaps at first they win a few dollars—which is the worst thing that could happen to them, for they later lose it all and much more. Don't get the idea that the races are run only for sport—they are run so that a small group can make great piles of money—and the fellow who thinks he can consistently win is a sucker. And there are plenty of suckers abroad in the land.

—o—

In spite of all the President's argument the object he has in mind in changing the personnel of the Supreme Court is to "fix things" so the policies he advocates will not be outlawed. And outlawed they have been by a Supreme Court that knows the law and the provisions of the constitution. We cannot help wondering what kind of an argument President Roosevelt would put up at this time if he were seventy years of age. Would he admit that he was incompetent to pass judgment on matters pertainisg to the law or the constitution? It it a gratifying fact to note that a large number of the outstanding Democrats of the nation are opposing his plan—as well as those of other political affiliations.

Statistics tell us that the youngsters like spinach almost as well as they do potatoes. Another evidence that statistics are hooey in some instances.

Ode to Red Hill

Hail to Red Hill! Of all the foothills thou art queen,
Standing alone in majesty—beautiful, aloft, serene;
With the rugged white-capped Sierras ever guarding thee,
Thy beauty is not matched from the mountains to the sea.

The vistas from thy summit are the fairest in the land—
They embrace the works of nature as well as those of man.
The green of field and orchard that surround thy lovely base,
Fades into purple foothills and into desert waste.

You overlook the cities and the highways of the land,
Where puny mortals rush to and fro, like shifting desert sand.
You've seen great transformations since the beginning of thy time,
Yet hath remained immobile, an example for mankind.

Thy gorgeous colored sunsets are marvelous to behold,
As the sun dips the blue Pacific a flaming mass of gold;
The evening star shines brighter as it twinkles there close by
As the moon lights up the mountains that support the eastern sky.

The road winds up thy grassy slopes through flowers and purple heather,
Along beside a singing brook in springtime's showery weather.
Through spreading sycamores that wave, in a friendly sort of way,
On up the long green fairways where lads and lassies play.

To those who live on Red Hill—you are a favored few—
Above the turmoil, fog and smoke, in the sunshine and the dew.
In the fragrance of the flowers that pervades the balmy air,
Let me live and die on Red Hill is my heart's unending prayer.

—Frank L. Allen.

Temple Bells

When night, with shadows soft as sleep,
Drapes lilac hills afar,
And in the deepening twilight sky
Hangs out the evening star,
There comes a music to our hearts,
Its echo ebbs and swells
In tides of far sweet melody,
The golden temple bells.

Across the valleys and the hills,
Their voices call to prayers,
"Lay down your wearying load," they say,
"And rest with Him who cares.
Forget your grieving and your hurt,
Forget all hate and strife,
And find new love and strength and faith
With Him who giveth life."

Across the starlit hills and vales
Their music throbs and swells
In tides of heavenly melody,
God's golden temple bells.

If I Could Know!

If I could know that you were fighting wildly
With unseen forces and with foes that press you sore,
I wouldn't fret because you're absent-minded
When I parade my day's perplexing score.

If I could know your faith was fighting madly
To keep itself alive with prayers gone dead,
I would not tire you with my little worries,
O, no, I'd keep them to myself instead.

If I could know your strength was spent with swimming
Against a seeming endless, crushing tide,
I'd never waste my force on roving fancies—
Don't doubt it, dear; you'd find me fighting at your side.

—Daisy N. Houghton

Goldenrod Fairies

One night when the sunset was glowing and crimson,
And pastel tints spread and reflected their sheen,
I wandered where goldenroad candled the landscape
And twilight came on like the drift of a dream.
Beside the fresh windrows of hay in the meadows,
I lay as the quiet of night came apace,
And saw in a goldenrod, tall and majestic,
A fairy was hammocked with exquisite grace.
Her wings were the tenderest blue, and her garments
Diaphonous clouddrift of turquoise and green;
She sang in accord with the thrumming cicadas
A song that the Elfin folk sing to their queen!

"Forty Years Ago" was the theme of the talks made at the meeting of the Lions club yesterday at The Sycamores when F. H. Manker and L. R. Bradley were the speakers. Mr. Bradley recalled the planting of trees on Euclid avenue in 1880, when there was nothing but sand and sagebrush along most of the avenue. He gave the history of Chaffey from the founding of Chaffey college and told of the two early day newspapers, the Valley Mirror and the North Ontario Sentinel, which were merged into the Upland News in 1901. Mr. Manker told of the formation of both the Ontario and the Upland fire departments and of Upland's first serious fire, when frame buildings opposite The Upland News office were destroyed. A grocery store was saved when Mr. Manker had quantities of salt from the stock poured upon the roof. The next month the grocer sent Mr. Manker a bill for the salt.

Alaskan Children Appreciate Boxes Sent From Upland

The boxes filled last summer by the Upland Junior Red Cross at the Fannie D. Noe school have exerted quite an influence, according to a letter received by Miss Dorothy Thompson, member of the Fannie D. Noe school faculty and director of the Junior Red Cross.

The letter, written by Charlotte M. Linfoot, assistant director of the Junior Red Cross in the Pacific area, follows:

You will recall that some of the Junior Red Cross boxes filled by the Upland Juniors last summer for native children in Alaska were sent to Chanega, near Valdez.

Just to indicate to you and the boys and girls how much the Red Cross and its service means to these native children, I should like to tell you that we have received from them as their contribution to the Distaster Relief fund the amount of $9.22. In sending this money to us, the treasurer of the Valdez chapter of the Red Cross writes that she was almost paralyzed at receiving this money as the children are very, very poor. Indeed they are so poor that they do not have enough clothing and the Red Cross at Valdez was at the moment preparing a consignment of Red Cross clothing to go to them on the next mail boat.

Somehow we feel that this Red Cross support is partly traceable to the service which the American Juniors have given to these native children. We thought you would like to know about this and to tell the Upland Juniors that their friendly gesture to these boys and girls has been partly responsible for the generation of spirit.

A new series of 10 lectures and concerts, organized by President Gardiner W. Spring of Chaffey junior college for the entertainment of the citizens of the Chaffey district, is announced, to begin March 18 continuing through May 27. The lectures will be given on successive Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock, in the Chaffey junior college auditorium. The admission is free.

This series is the fifth "Foundations of Culture" series which have been offered since 1933 as a part of the adult education work. Each year the subjects have changed and the lectures enlarged to add variety and new experience. This year's series includes motion pictures, lectures and concerts.

Lectures include a talk illustrated by motion pictures given by Allen Villiers on March 18. Mr. Villiers will tell the story of his experiences on his sailing ship around Cape Horn. Paul Jordan Smith, book editor of the Los Angeles Times, will return to the Chaffey platform on April 8, speaking on the topic, "What's New in the World of Books."

The Hancock ensemble of the Hancock Pacific Expeditions will appear on April 15 with a motion picture, "To Tropical Seas Aboard Velero III," and an evening's musical entertainment by their ensemble and soloists.

Everett Dean Martin, author and educator from Claremont Colleges, will speak on April 29. His tropic is "The Psychology of a Crowd." May 13, Ralph B. Cornell, noted Southern California landscape architect, will lecture with colored slides on "Landscaping the Home."

Five concerts will be presented by the divisions of the Chaffey music department. These organizations are well known throughout the valley, and these appearances are their home concerts for the year 1936-37. The first will be given April 1 by the Chaffey concert band, directed by Murray Owen. This is the first appearance of the band in its new uniforms.

April 22, the Chaffey high school glee clubs, directed by Florence H. Blakeslee, will present choral, solo and variety work. They will be assisted by the Chaffey orchestra. The Chaffey theatre orchestra, directed by Murray Owen, will appear May 6 in a program consisting largely of modern American music and musical comedy selections. The orchestra will be assisted by soloists and the a cappella choir.

The Chaffey a cappella choir, directed by S. Earle Blakeslee, returns from its series of radio broadcasts over the Mutual broadcasting network and its San Francisco appearance for its annual [illegible] choir will be assisted by its regular soloists. The Chaffey symphony orchestra will close the series on May 27 with the final concert of the year. The orchestra is conducted by Herbert Gray. Charles Jones and Murray Owen.

Pension Act Change Opposed by County Farm Bureau Heads

Liberalization of the California old age pension act is strongly opposed by the San Bernardino county farm bureau.

Meeting for their monthly session, directors of the bureau went on record against measures pending in the legislature. R. O. Price Upland, presided.

The board adopted a resolution protesting against any increase in old age pensions by lowering of age limits, against the elimination of provisions requiring assistance from relatives or cancellation of liens on property and favored reinstating the law requiring a minimum of 10 years residence to obtain aid instead of the present five years.

Under the present law, this county's share of the pensions is $331,000. By increasing the pension per person from $35 to $50 and by dropping the age limit from 65 to 60, the county's share would be $825,000, according to Mr. Price.

News of Society and Clubs

By MRS. ETHEL THRASH

Fascinating Story of Guam Is Heard by Club Women

Immediately captivating her audience with her sparkling personality and contagious enthusiasm and humor, Mrs. Francis Lee Albert of Long Beach addressed the members and guests of the Upland Woman's club at the luncheon meeting held Tuesday in the club house.

Following the luncheon Mrs. Ray R. Sherwood, president of the club, conducted a brief business session and turned the meeting over to Mrs. J. Emery Sargent, program chairman, who gave Mrs. H. M. Guy, personal friend of Mrs. Albert, the privilege of presenting the speaker.

Mrs. Albert and Mrs. Guy at one time were neighbors in Oregon. Their friendship has continued during the intervening years. While here Mrs. Albert was the guest of Mrs. Guy.

As the wife of a chaplain in the United States navy, Mrs. Albert has often had the privilege of sailing the high seas, making port in many far away and fascinating places.

At one time her husband was stationed in Samoa for two years and they had opportunity to experience much of the glamour and romance of the far South Seas and acquire an unwelcome share of malaria, Mrs. Albert admits wryly.

Later, Mr. Albert, who recently was raised to the rank of commander, was stationed on Guam, a small but important island some distance west of the Philippine islands in the South Pacific, and it was of that island that Mrs. Albert spoke in her address on "Guam, the Paradise of the Pacific," telling many surprising things of its people.

The largest of the Marianne group, Guam has an area of 200 square miles, including many acres of fertile land and valuable timber.

Contrary to the general belief, the natives, many carrying a strain of Spanish blood as the result of years of Spanish dominion, are not of the type usually found on southern islands, and 90 per cent of the population can read and write.

According to naval custom, the commander of a stationed ship becomes the governor of the island and the chaplain is superintendent of schools, so for five years Mr. Albert had charge of the 26 schools on Guam and came in close contact with the natives.

The schools are up to date and teach the students many trades. There are five naval hospitals and health supervision and the natives are clean and industrious, Mrs. Albert pointed out in giving a humorous account of her visions of savages, pestilence and hardship when her husband was ordered to the island.

The natives raise rice, bananas, cocoanuts, fruits, vegetables, etc., for which they find a good market.

Guam is not only fertile, but it also is a beautiful country, Mrs. Albert stated, and has a delightful climate.

In giving her interesting information, Mrs. Albert did not overlook her many humorous experiences and she kept her audience amused with accounts of her household problems, stories of the natives' queer superstitions, their belief in ghosts, and many of their primitive customs that contrast oddly with their acquired western civilization.

While stationed on Guam, Mrs. Albert made trips with her husband to various other places in the Orient and she told particularly of a visit in Hongkong where she became separated from her eight year old daughter while on a trip about the city, and had an exciting time locating the child after a native policeman assured her the coolie would return the girl "if he is honest." Mrs. Albert is the mother of four fine children.

At the close of her address, Mrs. Albert was bombarded with questions which she graciously spent some time in answering.

The luncheon table was particularly attractive in spring decorations of sprays of peach blossoms and pussy willow with alternating potted pansies in bloom. Mr. Arthur Pehl and her committee had charge of the luncheon and a delectable menu was served.

Mrs. L. A. Fox, 505 Eighth avenue, submitted to an operation for the removal of her tonsils Wednesday and is now making satisfactory recovery.

Going to Los Angeles on a recent day, Mrs. Chas. E. Allen was joined there by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cora Bargwall of that city, and they spent the day at Santa Monica and other beaches.

Ruth West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. West, was returned to her home Thursday from the San Antonio Community hospital, where she had been since Sunday receiving treatment for a serious case of oak poisoning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hays are residing at 608 North First avenue, having recently located in Upland. They came here from Washington, Iowa. Mr. Hays is a contractor and he is at present engaged in assisting in construction of a local residence.

Mrs. Gust Anderson, Mrs. Perry O. Long, Mrs. J. Lynward Grahame, Miss Eunice Mitchell, and Mrs. Roy Creighton, and perhaps others of Upland chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will motor to San Bernardino this evening and attend a guest night meeting of Gate City chapter.

Robert Schaefer, widely known in Upland, is to be transferred to Phoenix as manager of the Union Oil Co. activities in that district. He has been manager of the Ontario district for several years and the new position is looked upon as an outstanding promotion. He is scheduled to take up his new duties immediately.

New cars have been purchased recently by the following as indicated by the issuance of motor vehicle certificates: C. P. Shaffer, Cucamonga; H. R. Snyder, 550 Third avenue; Gordon F. Stevens, 1008 East Seventh street; Harry W. Flowers, 592 Euclid avenue, Upland, and L. C. Ramsell, 177 Monte Vista street, Alta Loma.

Two runaway school boys from Los Angeles spent Wednesday night and most of the day Thursday in the Upland police station. They were returned home yesterday afternoon. They were detained by Officer P. H. Evans late Wednesday on Foothill boulevard. The youths said they had been accused of smoking and rather than submit to a "lecture" they ran away. The youths are Eugene C. Kress, 15 years of age, and Lyman B Crunk, 17 years of age.

Mrs. J. W. Morgensen, West Arrow highway, is reported to be slightly improved following an operation at the San Antonio Community hospital.

Douglas Sage, who was burned in orchard heating activities seven weeks ago today, is expected to leave the San Antonio Community hospital soon. He recently was returned to the hospital for special attention but he plans to go to his home on East Ninth street soon.

Mrs. G. W. Eckerman, Euclid avenue, is enjoying a visit with relatives who arrived at her home yesterday morning. All are cousins and are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ainsworth of Wagonwheel Gap, Mont.; Max Brooks and Mrs. Bertha Brooks of Monterey Park Calif.

E. M. Rankin, 95 years of age, is continuing in a coma, he being critically ill for several weeks. He became unconscious Monday and since then he has been losing in strength. Mr. Rankin is the oldest member of the "Last Man's club," made up of Civil War veterans in this district.

Much interest is being shown in the public hearing to be held next Thursday by the city council relative to the opening up of Euclid avenue and Foothill boulevard to business. A request to change the zone to permit business at the southeast corner will be presented by owners of the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mallin, who have been visiting since December with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Westerburg of 1028 Euclid avenue, left Wednesday for their home in Cleveland, Ohio. They are prolonging their stay in the south by returning home by way of New Orleans and points in Florida, where they will visit for a time.

"Edith, what is it you want to know now?"

Mrs. C H. Clements Passes Last Night; Funeral on Monday

Mrs. Annetta B. Clements, wife of Charles H. Clements, passed away at 10 o'clock last night at her home, 367 East Foothill boulevard, her death following a long period of ill health.

Following a long illness a few years ago, Mrs. Clements' health improved and she was able to be out and enjoy her various activities for a time, but several months ago she again became ill and since then had been confined to her home, bearing her illness patiently and always thinking first of the welfare of her family.

A native of Waynesville, Ohio, Mrs. Clements was 70 years old. She had resided in California for 27 years, living in Long Beach 10 years, in Chino six years, and coming to the present home on Foothill boulevard 11 years ago.

Surviving besides her husband, are two sons, Ethan, at home, and Donald Clements in Ontario; two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Hauenstan of Long Beach and Mrs. R. R. Currant of Honolulu, and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Clements was a member of the Upland Methodist church and the pastor, the Rev. Paul F. Huebner, assisted by Dr. R. C. Stone, former Presbyterian pastor, will conduct the funeral service.

The service will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Stone funeral home.

Winners In Local Girl Scout Letter Contest Are Revealed

Results of the recent letter contest on "Why I Am a Girl Scout," sponsored by the publicity committee of the Girl Scout council, were announced today by Miss Alberta Schaefer, committee chairman, the winners in the order named being Margaret Wilcox of 912 West Seventh street, Upland, age 11 years, troop No. 1, sixth grade; Lois Anne Findlay of 607 East Seventh street, Upland, age 11 years, troop No. 6, Sixth grade; Betty Fay of 421 East C street, Ontario, 10 years, troop 9, fourth grade.

The contest was held as a feature of the celebration of the silver anniversary of the organization of Girl Scouts.

Below are given the first and second prize winning letters:

Perhaps you would be interested to know why I am a Girl Scout. Several years ago when I was a Brownie I had a friend who was a Scout, and she assured me that I would be very enthusiastic about Scouting. Now I can't get along without it.

It gives me an opportunity to work at the things I like with other girls—athletics and swimming, child nursing, home nursing, first aid, nature study, and my favorite, astronomy. In fact you are able to learn something about almost any vocation.

Our troop captain is a friend who makes work seem like fun. She plans and supervises our activities and teaches us to do things by ourselves.

And last, one of the best reasons, camp. There we hike, swim, play, and do our share of the work. At night there is campfire, with stories, singing and dramatics. It seems impossible that so much fun could be crowded into one short week.

There are Girl Scouts and Girl Guides in the four corners of the world, and I feel that the girl who isn't one is missing something she can't afford to miss.—Margaret Wilcox.

All my life I have heard the members of my family talk about nice personalities certain people have, and it made me wonder how I could grow up to have one, also. I read the Girl Scout laws, and it seemed to me that a person who was honorable, loyal, courteous, cheerful and clean in thought, word and deed, would surely be a good person to know.

I like the things that the Girl Scouts learn, especially nature study and stars. I can enjoy nature in whatever place I may live—mountains, desert or lonesome places. If I should live in a large city, and could not be near a place where trees and flowers grow, I could still see the stars.

Of course, I can learn at home most of the home making duties that Scouts teach, but it makes it more interesting to do it with a group of girls.

Altogether, the things I will learn will be of great use to me and will take up my spare time until I am grown up and have other duties.

This is why I joined the Girl Scouts.—Lois Anne Findlay.

Townsend Club To Hear "Mirandy" at Meeting March 16

A unique program is to be given at the meeting of Upland Townsend club in the Woman's club house Tuesday evening, March 16, when "Mirandy," the popular radio entertainer, hillbilly philosopher and humorist is presented.

Mirandy, who wears a bonnet with perky ruffles on it as a part of her backwoods costume, is pretty and clever, with a way about her that keeps her audience in laughter while she says things that make them think.

A very brief business session will be conducted by the club president, Orin Hook, and for the musical part of the program, which in itself will be a special treat, Albert Gale, talented violinist of Ontario, and Mrs. Gale, pianist, will contribute a group of selections.

The remainder of the time will be given over to Mirandy and her extraordinary program.

A small admission charge will be made and all Townsend members and the public are invited to attend.

A number of members of the club will attend a Townsend institute to be held Saturday afternoon and evening in the Ontario American Legion hall under the sponsorship of the Upland, Chino and four Ontario clubs. Several prominent speakers will be on the program and dinner will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock.

The eighth graders lost their game by a score of 26 to 16, this making two games lost out of three played, with one more game scheduled in the series.

NEW BOOKS LISTED AT LOCAL LIBRARY

Many Subjects Covered in New Books on Display at Library Today

This being "California Conservation Week," March 7 to 14, the library has received some very good material straight from the United States department of agriculture and also from the national park service.

"Conservation means wise use of natural resources," quoting from the pamphlet, of which "the greatest natural resources of California are water, soil, forests, wildlife, minerals, and petroleum products. Water heads the list. . ." The other pamphlet is entitled "California's Lion Share of Our National Park System." A total of 16,317,026 acres comprise the national park system.

Beside these pamphlets, another long list of new books will go on display today and will begin circulating Friday. Some good rental items are listed, the Literary Guild number, "The Theatre," by Maugham; a translation, "Bridal Canopy," by Agnon, and the "Post Stories of 1936," meaning of course Saturepost. In the non-fiction, two books on Mexico, the one "Mexico in Your Pocket," by Austin, is quite the guide-book; the other by Max Miller, "Mexico Around Me," takes one to many places not generally seen by the traveling public. Both books will be of interest to those planning a trip to that country, while the "rocking chair" traveler will enjoy them just as much at home.

Now that "High School Self Taught," by Copeland, is in the library, there is really no reason for anyone to lack high school in his or her life. Old china, social correspondence, fortune telling, entertaining, all are found in the list. Mystery, western, detective, love, adventure, may be found in the new fiction.

SAFEWAY

It's farther between filling stations in the Ford "60"

THE 60-horsepower Ford V-8 engine was first developed for Europe, where fuel costs are high. Two years' usage there proved its unusual economy.

When the "60" came to this country this year, the Ford Motor Company made no mileage claims—waited for facts, written on American roads by American drivers.

Now Ford "60" owners are reporting averages of 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline. That makes it the most economical Ford car ever built!

Best of all, the Ford "60" is just as big and roomy—just as handsome, sturdy and safe—as the famous 85-horsepower Ford V-8. And it sells at the lowest Ford price in years.

If you want a big car for a small budget—a car you can drive with pride and profit—see the thrifty "60" soon!

MRS. J. B. M'CARTER NEW P.-T. A. HEAD

Annual Election Is Held by Fannie D. Noe P.-T. A. —Progra mHeld

In the annual election of officers held Wednesday afternoon by the Fannie D. Noe Parent-Teacher association, Mrs. J. B. McCarter was elected president to succeed Mrs. Geo. W. Cassell, who has successfully directed the activities of the association for the past two years.

Mrs. McCarter, who came from Ontario to Upland last September, resides at 258 East D street. She formerly lived in Upland for some time, her son having been born here five years ago, and she originally came from Wyoming to attend Chaffey.

During her present residence here Mrs. McCarter has been active in P.-T. A. work, has become an interested member of the Upland Motion Picture Council and is captain of Girl Scout troop No. 7.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Willard F. Carris, secretary; Mrs. Lee K. Bigley, treasurer, and Miss Dorothy Thompson, historian. A vice-president will be named by the executive board.

The election occurred during a brief business session conducted by Mrs. Cassell and the roll call showed Miss Ella Schmidt's kindergarton room had the largest number of mothers present.

Mrs. McCarter made an interesting report of the recent meeting of the Upland Motion Picture Council and spoke of the excellent cooperation being given by Herbert Adams, manager of the Upland theatre, in presenting the higher class pictures as he is able to secure them.

Recommending a number of health magazines, federal health bureau pamphlets and state bulletins for those seeking reliable information, Mrs. Harriet L. Fleming of Chaffey gave the afternoon address.

Mrs. Fleming listed as the five fundamental laws of good health: Proper and sufficient food, air and water, sufficient rest, correct posture, cleanliness and exercise.

She stressed the value of conserving ones strength and vitality following an illness, especially in case of the child, and she highly commended the health program being carried on in Upland.

The meeting closed with a St. Patrick's day tea, Mrs. Clyde D. DuVall and Mrs. Harold W. Cook presiding at the green and white tea table and the mothers of Mrs. Owen E. Atwood's and Miss Bertha Watson's rooms being hostesses.

"Ole Joins the Sit Down Strikers"

By Golly, everywhere the sit-downers are. First they start in the auto plants. That bane bad for lots of dealers unless they sell used cars. You see the men really want new cars but their wives would not wait so they buy used one. Joe tell me he sold one guy two. His wife wanted a rumble seat one. Aneyway I tank the factories got a lot of right on their side. Most everyone like to have a chance to run his own business. Nobody bane able to tell me how to write my column yet. Not even Helga.

After they get tings fixed up in carline, it break out in a new place. The airplane factories. Out here in Californy they get tough with these guys and lot o' them land in jail. Los Angeles population is made up quite a lot with bail-borders and if the sit-downers had any wrist watches or gold on their teeth they got out of jail after a few hours. And they hear about the strikes in Ameriky and yumpin yiming the Geisha girls over in Japan try it too. Japan is coming to the front fast these days. Old Buddha would hardly recognize the old temple now.

If I find someone who can write a good "OLE" column for me, by golly I join the sitdowners too. Lots more fun than working. Aneyway tings not going so good to me. I go to the Santa Anita track and none of the horses do like the papers say. So I lose. Course when I join it may be a big flop. Sonja Henie did a big flop in Kansas City the other day and the act went over big. You can't always tell what the public will do. What you tank?

Gas Sales Go Up as Wine, Beer Income Drops During Month

Gasoline sales continued to increase during January, but there was a substantial drop in the distribution of wine and beer in California, according to figures compiled by the state board of equalization.

The tax on beer and wine amounted to $88,010.26, as compared with $109,811.41 the previous month. The total for January also represented a decrease of 19.85 per cent under the amount reported for the same period of 1936.

PLACE FOR YOUTHS IF THEY MAKE IT

John W. Shepperson Sees Opportunities for Those Who Are Ambitious

It is unnecessary for the youths of today to wait for a new social order in America before they can find a place in the business and industrial world, John W. Shepperson said at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in the Red Hill Country club house at noon yesterday.

The reasonably ambitious boy or girl can by diligent work and enthusiasm make a place for themselves now just as easily as have the young people in former years, the Uplander said.

"If I were giving advice to the young people," the speaker continued. "I would say, 'don't wait for a new social order and expect to find a place . . . make a place for yourself now'."

Mr. Shepperson's statements in his interesting address brought reassurance to one's belief in America and encouragement to those who believed the day of opportunities was passing.

The speaker, who is a citrus grower and close student of economic and political trends, declared his belief in many of the proposals being introduced in American government. He cautioned about the possibility of youth getting the impression a benevolent government could provide a ready-made place in the social order and easy retirement when old age was reached.

"There will be more 'white collar' jobs in the future than in the past," Mr. Shepperson said. "One reason for this is the closing of the doors on unrestricted immigration."

On the basis of what some speakers have said in the Chaffey public forums and what public leaders have said, one might gain the impression that many things are wrong in America, Mr. Shepperson declared. "What good can come out of all this trouble and turmoil? might be a logical question," he said in summarizing the general impression gained from speakers' lamentations.

At this point Mr. Shepperson challenged anyone to cite a nathan America. Fascist Italy has than America. Fascist Italy had gone ahead and so has Germany, Mr. Shepperson said, but he saw very little in those countries that would be suitable for American government.

President E. C. Rosenberger was in charge of the meeting with L. A. Fox serving as program chairman. An entertainment feature of the meeting was vocal solos by Rev. Rex E. Lawhead, Presbyterian pastor.

San Antonio Heights League Decides on Improvement —Hears Talks

The address on "Business Economics" made by H. Gordon Moore before the San Antonio Heights Community League in session last night, proved to be an interesting discussion of what a prospective purchaser should know about real estate financing, laws, etc.

No person, he said, should permit himself to be influenced to buy property he does not need or is not ready or able to handle, just because it is represented to him as a bargain.

Mr. Moore, who resides on San Antonio Heights, is in the real estate business in Pomona, and his experience in that line makes him [illegible] matters. He particularly urged careful and thorough investigation of financial an improvement arrangements when purchasing sub-division property.

Dr. Chas. B. Taylor, president of the League, conducted a brief business session and the members decided to take up the work of improving the small triangular park in the center of Euclid avenue at Twenty-fourth street.

The meeting was held at the Eighteenth street school and was largely attended, more persons than usual being present.

Exhibit of Picture Of Witchcraft Days Placed in Library

A new motion picture exhibit, posters of the "Maid of Salem," has been placed in the Upland public library through the efforts of the Upland Motion Picture Council, of which Mrs. Leon Durham is president.

This exhibit, which follows that of "The Plainsman," is a group of 12 pictures depicting the characters in the picture and giving details of the costumes, make-up, etc., as well as showing the stage properties used—all being authentic reproductions of those used in the Pilgrim days and the gruesome witchcraft period, in which the motion picture is placed.

Mrs. Geo. W. West, assistant librarian and member of the Motion Picture Council, is in charge of the exhibits and she states the pictures placed in the local library are the only ones sent to this section of Southern California.

Funeral Rites for Mrs. Swartzendruber Saturday Afternoon

Funeral service for Mrs. B. P. Swartzendruber, who passed away last Sunday night, will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Brethren in Christ church, with the Rev. Alvin C. Burkholder officiating. Interment will take place in Bellevue cemetery.

The Stone funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Aged Resident of Etiwanda Passes

Dr. Samuel C. Balch, a resident of Claremont for many years, died at 8:45 Thursday morning at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Harold V. Hartshorn in Etiwanda, where he had lived for the past 15 months.

Dr. Balch, a retired physician, was born in Georgetown, Ill., and was 87 years old. He had lived in Claremont for 42 years. He was a member of the Masonic lodge, being both a Knight Templar and a Shriner.

Besides Mrs. Hartshorn, he leaves another daughter, Mrs. G. Ray Horton in Claremont.

Funeral service will be held at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the Stone funeral home and interment will be made in Oak Grove cemetery, Claremont.

L. A. Philharmonic To Appear at Claremont

The Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra of 90 musicians and Dr. Otto Klemperer, internationally known conductor, will be at Bridges auditorium, Claremont, for their second major concert of the year, next Tuesday evening.

This is the first time that such a concert has been offered in this section. Each year the orchestra appears in several Southern California cities in a series of two or three concerts and many requests have come for a second concert in this section east of Los Angeles.

This concert will take the place of the young people's concert presented in other years and the program is especially planned for young people and adults.

No more varied or more adequate program has been presented by the orchestra in Claremont and special arrangements are made for the admission of students. Reservations are being made by addressing Claremont Colleges, Bridges auditorium, Claremont, or by telephoning Claremont 5783.

Cucamonga-Alta Loma

T. N. T. Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Hogancamp entertained members of the T. N. T. card club Wednesday evening at their home on La Vine street, Alta Loma, and a merry party was enjoyed.

The early part of the evening was devoted to a lively 500 tourney, with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Monkman winning high score prize and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen receiving second award.

During the social hour that followed the games Mrs. Monkman served tempting refreshments.

Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. William Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Monkman and Mr. and Mrs. Hogancamp.

Mrs. Beckman Heads P.-T. A.

Succeeding Mrs. Joe G. Crick, who is retiring at the close of a very successful year, Mrs. Clifford S. Beckman was elected president of the Alta Loma Parent-Teacher Association during the regular [illegible] noon.

Other officers named to serve with Mrs. Beckman are Mrs. Ellen Van Every, vice-president; Mrs. Rupert Dishman, secretary; Mrs. Fred Voss, treasurer, and Mrs. E. E. Perdew, historian.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Crick and at the conclusion of the business session Mrs. E. H. Genung of Upland made a talk on the value of visual education, pointing out the greater ease with which a fact may be learned by a child when taught with pictures as well as with spoken and written words.

Mrs. Genung illustrated her address with a talking motion picture, "Little Brown Bear," and she explained the use of various other visual education materials.

The meeting closed with a social hour, during which tea was served. Miss Lockie Hill, chairman of the hostess committee, was assisted by Miss Rosamond Lipow, Miss Twyla Osborn and Mrs. Albert Smutz.

Dude Nolan, Eighth street and Belmont avenue, Cucamonga, was given a 30-day suspended sentence on an intoxication charge by Judge James Sharp this morning. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Jack Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Derfer, 255 Lomita drive, Alta Loma, are the parents of a son born at the San Antonio Community hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Methodist Woman's Aid Will Purchase Range for Kitchen

The kitchen in Fellowship hall of the Methodist church is to have a new range, as the result of action taken by the Woman's Aid society during the meeting held Thursday, it was announced today by Mrs. L. E. Moser, president of the society.

The meeting was opened at 11 o'clock with Mrs. Moser presiding and Mrs. Frank C. Buffington leading the devotional service.

In addition to voting to purchase the range, the Aid society also discussed plans for the International Fellowship tea to be held on April 8 in connection with the Million Unit Fellowship movement.

Preceding the Aid society meeting, the Woman's Foreign Missionary society meeting was held with Mrs. Lester P. Jones, vice-president, presiding in the absence of Mrs. Thos. H. Settle.

A brief business session was held and Mrs. W. F. Kitchel reviewed the missionary book, "Crosses on Africa."

Following the noon hour luncheon, Mrs. Louise Wilson conducted the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society, with Mrs. Fannie Gay leading the devotional service.

Several interesting numbers were included in the program. Mrs. C. S. Kelley read articles on "Christian Citizenship," Mrs. Lewis Jenison and Mrs. Ralph J. Wilson sang a duet, and Mrs. Marian Cochran reviewed two chapters of the book, "Preface to Racial Understanding."

Speaker Tells of Russian Refugees Moving to Canada

The story of the great migration of Russian Mennonites to Canada in 1920-21 was graphically told to a large audience at the Upland Mennonite church Wednesday evening, when the Rev. Daniel Toews of Rosthern, Saskatchewan, Canada, was presented as the speaker.

Fleeing from Russia because of religious persecution, 21,000 Mennonites, aided by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., made their way to Canada, settling mostly in the provinces of Ontario, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Many of the refugees had been wealthy in Russia, but all reached Canada in the same financial condition—absolute destitution.

The speaker told of their joy in their new religious freedom and of their courage and determination to rehabilitate themselves. With the aid of loans from the railway company, they settled in colonies, many of them turning to farming, and they now have the loans about two-thirds repaid.

These people, the speaker said, have made great sacrifices to repay the loans and they have little money to spend for the religious books and other literature that they need. The Rev. Mr. Teows, who is a representative of the Home Mission board of the Mennonite church, is making his present tour in the interests of the Canadian colonists.

Victor Jory Will Play Celebrated Role in Ramona

Victor Jory will play the role of Alessandro again this season in the famed California outdoor play "Ramona," which opens April 17 in Ramona bowl near Hemet-San Jacinto.

Returning from an 11-month picture trip in England and Australia, Jory arrived in Hollywood this week to begin preparations for renewal of his film work in this country.

This will mark Jory's fifth consecutive season in the celebrated spectacular play which the people of Hemet and San Jacinto present every spring for six performances. This season's dates are April 17-18, 24-25 and May 1-2.

The townspeople of the twin cities who play all but the principal roles in the cast of 250 are busily engaged with the preliminaries necessary to the staging of the exciting production based on the immortal love story by Helen Hunt Jackson.
